Progress Report on THE FIVE-YEAR INDEX: TNC's 5-Year Index is nearing completion. Upwards of 50,000 index slips have been prepared, covering the 640 pages of these first 20 issues of the magazine. Arranging these slips in strict alphabetical order is a staggering undertaking, but the work is progressing, slowly but surely, and the final typing will soon commence.

The pre-publication price of $10.00 on Vol. I of Indiana Quaker Records: Mississinewa Monthly Meeting (see TNC, p. 652) will be extended to the 31st of December 1960. If, by that time, a sufficient number of orders have been received, the volume will be published; if not, the project will be postponed indefinitely.

TNC is now nearing the end of its sixth year. In order that publication of the magazine continue, it will be necessary to increase the number of subscribers. Tell your friends and relatives about TNC, and perhaps send them a gift subscription as a "starter." Also, your Editor must do genealogical research, in between issues of the magazine, and apply part of that income towards publication expenses. Your support is solicited.

This issue of TNC (p. 720) mentions some of North Carolina's presidential connections. It might be added that North Carolina has also supplied five Cabinet members, and all five served as Secretary of the Navy: John Branch, George E. Badger, William A. Graham, James C. Dobbin, and Josephus Daniels. A sixth Cabinet member was Kenneth Royall, who served a month as Secretary of War just before the War Department was merged with the Department of Defense.

One of TNC's subscribers was apparently watching TV as she renewed her subscription, for she sent your Editor a check made out to the order of William Perry Mason! Another subscriber gave her return address as: Birmingham 13, 1960!

REVIEWS

"ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS

One of the nicer and more worthwhile genealogical quarterlies is "Ansearchin'" News, published by the Memphis Genealogical Society. Of special interest and value to genealogists are such features as Tennessee pensioners (War of 1812), tax lists, marriage bonds, and articles to aid in genealogical research in Tennessee and elsewhere. The Editor, Mrs. Harry E. O'Hara, and the Memphis Genealogical Society, are to be congratulated. Membership is $3.00, and includes the four issues of the magazine per year; single copies, $1.00. Order from: Mrs. Harry E. O'Hara, 5391 Shady Grove Terrace, Memphis 17, Tennessee.

THE SHAW CHILDREN OF AMERICA

This new genealogical quarterly is for all persons in the U. S. who have Shaw ancestry. The publication is $2.00 per year (be sure to ask about the special Research Membership at $5.00). If all persons currently working on any branch of the Shaw family will cooperate, this project will be a huge success. Address the Editor: Miss Shelia Ann Shaw, 2525 Oak Street, Jacksonville 4, Florida.

ORANGE COUNTY, VIRGINIA, FAMILIES--Vol. III

This volume contains valuable miscellaneous and unrecorded data from the Orange courthouse, on many families who lived in and near Orange Co., Va., the past 200 years. The material for the colonial period is of value to those seeking membership in patriotic societies. Many families living in Orange Co., Va., in middle 1700's moved before 1800 to North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, and elsewhere. Several brief family genealogies are included. 170 pages; 8½" x 11"; illustrated; no index. Price: $10.00. Order from the compiler: Mr. Wm E. Brockman, c/o Midland National Bank, Minneapolis 40, Minnesota.

COGGIN FAMILY

Mr. Benton G. Coggin has compiled a voluminous record of the Coggin family (all branches) in an effort to trace his great-great-grandfather, Robert Coggin (m. Mollie Green and had a son, Joshua

G. Coggin, b. 1798 in N. C.). The genealogy is in two parts. Part I is a record of Joshua G. Coggin (m. in N. C. to Winnie Ann Lawhon & settled in Mississippi) and his descendants; Part II is miscellaneous Coggin data from Va., N. C., Tenn., & elsewhere. Alot of research has been done, and anyone interested in this name would do well to obtain copies of this material. 8½" x 11"; mimeographed; no index. Price: Part I, $5.00; Part II, $5.00; both for $10.00. Order from: Mr. Benton G. Coggin, Nettleton, Mississippi.

DIRECTORY, TEXAS SOCIETY, D.A.R.

This Directory, compiled by Mrs. Kelly McAdams, Sr., State Registrar, represents hundreds of hours of tedious work (as most large tasks of indexing do), but the final result is well worth the effort, I am sure. Members are arranged alphabetically under the 103 Chapters; Revolutionary War ancestors (several thousand--many with North Carolina service) are indexed separately. 281 pages; 6" x 9"; printed. Price: $3.00. Order from: Mrs. Kelly McAdams, Sr., 1425 Preston Avenue, Austin 3, Texas. (See advertisement, bottom of page 736, this issue of TNC.)

EARLY GEORGIA WILLS & SETTLEMENTS OF ESTATES--WILKES CO.

Sixty-two pages (8½" x 11") of valuable genealogical data from Wilkes Co., Ga., 1780's to 1860's--Wills, settlements of estates, marriages, etc. (This new material serves as a supplement to Davidson's works on Wilkes Co., Ga.) Many North Carolinians settled in this section of Georgia, incidentally. Fully indexed (over 700 families represented!); mimeographed. Price: $5.00. Order from the compiler: Mrs. Edgar L. Smith, 110 East Liberty Street, Washington, Georgia.

GOLDEN GRAINS OF RESEARCH

The Genealogical Society of Montana is now publishing a genealogical magazine, with the intriguing title of "Golden Grains of Research" (it began with the Fall 1959 issue). Montana became a State in 1889; ten North Carolinians were living there in 1900, and 485 in 1950, according to census records (1950 population of Montana was around half a million persons). Persons interested in the Society and the magazine are urged to write to the Genealogical Society of Montana, 250 Eleventh Street West, Billings, Montana.

PITT COUNTY WILLS AND ADMINISTRATIONS, 1761-1781

Pitt County was formed 5 December 1760 from Beaufort County, to become effective 1 January 1761. A courthouse fire in 1857 destroyed practically all the early court records of Pitt County, except the deeds which begin with Book B (Book A was destroyed). As with Hertford County (see TNC, June 1958, page 432), in keeping with a State law, lists of wills and administrations were periodically sent in to the Secretary of State, and these lists (and lists only) are preserved in the Archives in Raleigh (those for Pitt Co. in File Nos. SS884 and 79.005). But there is a gap in the 1761-1781 period, from 1769 through 1778, for which no lists have been preserved. And, of course, all Pitt County wills and administrations are a total loss from Feb. 1781 to Feb. 1858. (NOTE: There are four Pitt County wills in Grimes' Abstract of North Carolina Wills, 1690-1760: Matthew Scott, 1771; John Fillingham, 1773; William Watkins, 1773; and Elizabeth Speir, 1774. Olds listed nothing at all for Pitt County in his Abstracts of North Carolina Wills, c1760-c1800. In Archives File No. 79.005 are wills of: David Smith, 1797, and Benjamin May, 1805. Also, administration, c1791, of Shadrach Quinnaney.)

Following is a listing of Pitt County wills and administrations, 1761-1768, and 1779-1781:

1960 CENSUS

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below is a copy of the letter sent by Mrs. Driscoll Rooke (704 Haskin Road, San Antonio 9, Texas) to President Eisenhower re: the 1960 Census. It is indeed regrettable that the current census was the first in one hundred years (since 1840, actually) which failed to include the customary genealogical data. Perhaps if enough individuals and organizations protested, this oversight will have been corrected by time the 1970 Census is taken.

April 7th, 1960

Hon. Dwight D. Eisenhower
President of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

I feel that it is both my duty and my privilege, as an American citizen, to register a strong protest against the advance census report form for 1960.

Surely the Bureau of the Census must be aware that all of the census prior to the year 1900 - and even after - are being studied constantly by historians, researchers, ethnologists, statisticians, genealogists, and other scholars of like ilk.

The information contained in these census has proven to be of inestimable value. Where, I ask you, is the historical value and/or benefit to posterity in a form that does not contain the following vital questions:

1. Place of birth of each person in the household.
2. Date of birth of each person in the household.
3. The maiden name of all married females in the household.
4. The middle name of all members of the household, i. e., the middle name of the male so often contains a clue as to the mother's ancestry.
5. The occupation of the head of the household.

With sorrow, I realize that it is too late to rectify the simple-minded form which is currently being circulated. However, in the ten years of grace that are fortunately ahead of us, there will be ample time to prepare an adequate form to be used in 1970. It does not take special skill or any particular knowledge to evolve a form containing sufficient evidence for future historians to study and evaluate; it would not be any more expensive to print such a form; as a matter of fact, it might even be a little cheaper provided this current passionate interest in in-door toilets subsides.

My disapproval is not that of just one isolated individual; rather, I am voicing the opinion of all my friends, neighbors, and acquaintances. We intend to bring this most serious lapse of judgment on the part of our government before every organization and group to which we belong.

It is to be hoped that my protest and the protest of all others will not be ignored.

Sincerely,

/S/ Eloise Marmion Rooke
(Mrs. Driscoll Rooke)

BRUNSWICK COUNTY: 1769 & 1772 TAX LISTS

Brunswick Co., N. C., was formed in 1764 from New Hanover and Bladen Counties (the southern three-fourths from New Hanover, and the northern fourth from Bladen). In 1808 Columbus Co. was formed from Bladen and Brunswick Cos. (the southeastern two-thirds from Brunswick, and the northwestern third from Bladen). Thus from 1764 to 1808 Brunswick Co. embraced all of present-day Brunswick Co. and the southeastern two-thirds of present-day Columbus Co. From 1764 until Columbus Co. was formed in 1808, Brunswick Co. was bounded on the north by Bladen Co., on the east by the Cape Fear River and New Hanover Co., on the south by the Atlantic Ocean, and on the west by the State of South Carolina.

These 1769 & 1772 tax lists of Brunswick Co. are the oldest preserved for the county (next one is dated 1782). There will be many duplications, that is, the same persons will be given on both lists. However, since so many names appeared on one list and not on the other, it was thought best to publish both of the lists. (Archives, File Nos. LP11.1, and SS837.)

"An Alphabetical List of Taxables in Saint Philips Parish Brunswk. County for the year 1769."

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following data is given for each taxable: 1. No. of Chair Wheels; 2. No. of White Men; 3. No. of Negro Men; 4. No. of Negro Women; and 5. No. of Negro Boys. Below, the foregoing five categories will be abbreviated thusly: CW, WM, NM, NW, and NB.

NORTH CAROLINAS'S PRESIDENTIAL CONNECTIONS

In this election year it might be of interest to review some of North Carolina's presidential connections of the past. Two or three presidents, a couple of vice-presidents, and a first-lady are among North Carolina's notables. Listed in chronological order, they are as follows:

"DOLLEY" MADISON - First-Lady - wife of the 4th president, James Madison.
John and Mary (Coles) Payne joined Cedar Creek Quaker Meeting in Hanover Co., Va., in 1764/5, and in 1765 moved to New Garden Meeting in Rowan (now Guilford) Co., N. C. Dorothea ("Dolley") Dandridge Payne, third child of John and Mary, was born 20 May 1768, near present-day Guilford College in Guilford (then Rowan) Co., N. C. (She was a "birthright" Quaker; the family record appears in the Birth and Death records of New Garden Meeting, with her name given as "Dolly".) In 1769 the Paynes returned to Cedar Creek Meeting; in 1783 they removed to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In 1789 Dolley Payne married a Quaker, John Todd, Jr. (1763-1793), son of John and Mary (Duborow) Todd, by whom she had two sons, one of which died in infancy. On 15 Sept. 1794, at Harewood, Jefferson Co., Va. (now W. Va.), Dolley (Payne) Todd was married to a bachelor, James Madison, who at that time was serving in the U. S. House of Representatives (from Virginia). He was born 16 March 1751 at Port Conway, Va., the eldest of twelve children born to James and Eleanor ("Nellie") Rose (Conway) Madison. James and Dolley Madison had no children. Madison was a lawyer, an Episcopalian, and served two terms as president, 1809-1817; was Secretary of State under Jefferson, 1801-1809. He died 28 June 1836, at Montpelier, Orange Co., Va.; his wife died 12 July 1849, in Washington, D. C.; both buried at Montpelier.

ANDREW JACKSON - 7th president.
He was born in the Waxhaw Settlement near the N. C.-S. C. line, so is claimed by both States. Of Scotch-Irish ancestry, he was born 15 March 1767, son of Andrew and Elizabeth (Hutchinson) Jackson, from Ireland to North Carolina. At Natchez, Miss., in Aug. of 1791, he was married to Rachel (Donelson) Robards, a widow (by divorce; a second ceremony performed in Nashville, Tenn., 17 Jan. 1794). Rachel was born about the 15 June 1767, Halifax Co., Va., daughter of Col. John and Rachel (Stockley) Donelson. Andrew and Rachel Jackson had no children. She died 22 Dec. 1828; he died 8 June 1845; both at Nashville, Davidson Co., Tenn. Jackson was president 1829-1837; served as governor of Florida in 1821.

JAMES KNOX POLK - 11th president.
He was born near Pineville, Mecklenburg Co., N. C., 2 Nov. 1795, the eldest of ten children born to Samuel and Jane Gracey (Knox) Polk. (The four grandparents were Ezekiel & Mary Wilson Polk, & James & Lydia Gillespie Knox.) On 1 Jan. 1824, at Murfreesboro, Rutherford Co., Tenn., he was married to Sarah Childress, daughter of Capt. Joel & Elizabeth Childress. She was born 4 Sept. 1803, Murfreesboro, Tenn., and died 14 Aug. 1891, Nashville, Tennessee. He died 15 June 1849, at Nashville. No children. Polk served as president 1845-1849.

WILLIAM RUFUS DeVANE KING - 13th vice-president under 14th president, Franklin Pierce. King was born 7 April 1786, Sampson Co., N. C. Died in office, 18 April 1853, at Cahawba, Alabama; buried at Selma, Dallas Co., Alabama. Vice-president in 1853.

ANDREW JOHNSON - Vice-president under Lincoln; and 17th president. He was born 29 Dec. 1808, Raleigh, Wake Co., N. C., son of Jacob & Mary (McDonough) Johnson, youngest of three children. He was married 5 May 1827, at Greeneville, Greene Co., Tenn., to a shoemaker's daughter, Eliza McCardle, b. 4 Oct. 1810, Leesburg, Tenn. She died 15 Jan. 1876, Greene Co., Tenn. Andrew Johnson served as vice-president under Abraham Lincoln, in 1865, and became president upon Lincoln's death and served as president 1865-1868. He served two terms as governor of Tennessee in the 1850's. Andrew & Eliza (McCardle) Johnson had five children: Martha (1828-1901; m. 1855 David Trotter Patterson, Greeneville, Tenn.); Charles (1830-1863); Mary (1832-1883; m. 1st., 1852, Daniel Stover; 2nd., William R. Brown); Robert (1834-1869); and Andrew (1852-1879; married Bessie May Rumbough).

In passing, it might be mentioned that former president Herbert Hoover (31st president) has many North Carolina ancestors. His Hoover ancestors settled before the Revolutionary War in Randolph (thenRowan) Co., N. C.; the original spelling of the name was Huber. The immigrant ancestor (HerbertHoover's great-great-great-grandfather) was Andreas Huber (Andrew Hoover), born 1723 in Switzerland; to Pa. 1738 where he married 1745 to Margaret Pfautz; to N. C. c1763. They had thirteen children: Jonas, Jacob, Andrew, John, Daniel, David, Peter, Henry, Elizabeth, Rachel, Susannah, Mary, and Catherine. Many descendants currently live in Randolph Co., N. C., and surrounding counties, while others are scattered from coast to coast. Other families of Randolph County which are among Mr. Hoover's ancestors are Burkett, Waymire, and Yount. The names are also spelled Byrkett, Vemire, and Jundt. He also descends from the Low family of Randolph Co., and the Haskett family (Quakers) of Pasquotank and Perquimans Cos., N. C.

DESCRIPTIONS OF SOLDIERS FROM MILITIA RETURNS, 1778-1782

Six boxes of North Carolina Militia Returns, dating from 1747 to 1859, are preserved in the Archives in Raleigh. The Returns are not complete for any one year or any one county; in fact, there are no returns for many years, and many counties are not represented. The material, for the most part, consists of miscellaneous lists of just names, with the date, county, and officers usually given. Many of the lists give names of officers only, or militia statistics. Some of the earlier lists of names were published in the Colonial and State Records of North Carolina.

A dozen or so of the militia lists include some very interesting and valuable genealogical data for the men, such as age, place of birth, and physical description--information which is usually extremely difficult to locate for the Revolutionary War period. Unfortunately, only a few such lists have been preserved, and they cover only a fraction of the State. The bulk of the pertinent data from these lists have been abstracted for publication, but one should in every instance obtain a full copy, from the Archives, of the item or items of interest. (The six boxes are labeled as follows: 1. 1747-74; 2. 1775-79; 3. 1780-82; 4. 1783-1818; 5. 1834-59; 6. Undated.)

A 1782 "Estimate of Militia," as found among the papers in these boxes, will be included here, since the number of militia men in each county is given.
